

Arrival at Krakow Airport

Where to go

Upon arrival at the John Paul II International Airport Krakow, please proceed through immigration, collect your luggage, advance through customs and then go towards the Exit.

In case of any lost luggage, you should report this immediately to the lost luggage counter at the airport, same floor where you are to retrieve your luggage. If it is not possible for you to pick up your luggage, you will need to fill in a form and ask them to deliver your luggage to AGH.

The Krakow airport offers free WiFi, allowing travelers to stay connected upon arrival.

Welcome team

The volunteers from the host church will welcome you at Krakow Airport (during main arrival times). You can recognize the welcome team by T-shirts or vests and banners with the LWF Assembly logo.

What's next?

A chartered bus will be available at the airport for participants attending the Assembly who will stay at AGH University of Science and Technology campus.

For those who made arrangements to stay elsewhere, we encourage you to take a taxi or public transportation to your hotel destination.

Participants of the Women's Pre-Assembly and the Youth Pre-Assembly arriving on 7th September will be taken by bus from the airport to the Pre-Assembly venue in Wroclaw or in Wisla Malinka (a 2 to 3-hour bus trip).

If your arrival in Krakow is very early in the morning or very late in the evening, please proceed directly to AGH hotel using public transportation, as the assembly welcome team may no longer be at the airport at that time.
